eLibraryUSA

eLibraryUSA is a virtual library with online access to publications, scholarly journals, eBooks, audio, video, and other multi-media content. This virtual library is targeted towards audiences looking to do research, such as high school and university students, teachers, professors, government officials, and journalists, among others.

You can enter the homepage (<http://elibraryusa.state.gov>) in order to learn more about the different types of resources offered; however, a username and password is required in order to gain full access the content in eLibraryUSA.

After you pick up your IRC membership card, we will send you a password which grants full access to eLibraryUSA from any computer with an Internet connection.

By signing below, you hereby pledge to keep your password private and to not share your password with anybody else. eLibraryUSA is for your own private use ONLY and is not to be used in a classroom setting, or to provide research for anyone else. If you violate this agreement, your account will be cancelled.
